

Because The Elder Law Clinic needs continuity in its work for clients, students may not drop this course after the first class, without getting a “W” on the student’s transcript.